The Winning Ways and Charming Graces of the Logan Girls.

Pierpoint-Smoor wedding at Provo—Cont.ville's Mayor (and) and Banqueted—Social Happenings Elsewhere.

Logan.
The Y. L. M. I. association of the Fourth ward gave a very nice entertainment on Saturday evening for the benefit of the missionaries from the ward who are in foreign countries. A nice programme was rendered, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and concluded with a farce. A large audience greeted their efforts.

On Monday evening Messrs. Morris and Will Sweeney gave a very pleasant social and card party to a number of their friends at their home on the island. A very pleasant time was had and the evening was most enjoyable.

Cupid has again brought together two loving hearts. On Wednesday Mr. Nephi Smith was united in wedlock to Miss Alice Johnson. The ceremony was performed in Logan temple. In the evening a reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother. A large number of relatives and friends met to congratulate and wish them all happiness.

Since reading of the young and old mail of Salt Lake, in appreciating the old bachelors during the year, the thought suggested itself that now the bachelors will likely give them a wide berth and they will be left to mope in meditation, for, perhaps, our minds will stand a good chance of captivating some of them. Our girls are very timid, and I am afraid some of them will mope in meditation. But as a rule we have modest girls, and we have some of the handsomest, whitest, most go-a-head girls in the territory. They are not old maids, for all are under thirty. But our bachelors, like most men, do not and perhaps never will prize the blessings that some one deprives them of them. For instance our county recorder has either not nerve enough to ask one girl to light his cigarette, or else is afraid of wounding the feelings of all the others so he fills his office with some of the most clever ones. Miss Hattie Thatchers, a young woman thoroughly able to take care of herself and a husband too if necessary. Miss Lufkin, who can not only wield the pen, but who can dance most entrancing music that would turn any sensible man's head, and heart too if he possessed one, and Mr. Parry, who manipulates the typewriter in a way to make one's head ache. It is this only office where our girls are cultivating the solitude and earning their own living. In the county clerk's office is Miss Hattie Thatchers, who is a beauty while away the time and produces in his pockets. Then there are others of our girls who are independent and are earning their living to having it given them, for our girls usually believe in equal rights. Some are teaching, clerking and following all the useful avocations open to women.

Among our teachers are Misses Bessie and Marie Moorehead, charming intelligent girls and most efficient teachers, also Miss Brown, Miss Thatchers, and others. Miss Hattie Carter, our charming milliner, who can convince almost anyone that she has the latest styles and just the things you need. Miss Marie Torgerson, our telegraph operator, who has worked at the key since she was a little girl, which by the way is not very long ago, and who is one of the most efficient operators on the line. Then we have our girls at home who lighten the mother's labors and make home happy by their happy, charming ways. Among them are Misses Alley Thatchers, who combines with her amiable disposition a thorough knowledge of housekeeping and who will never give up of her bachelor friends sour bread. Miss Laura Farrell, charming enough to reign queen in any home, just the one to prove a joy forever and never make you regret your choice, who will smile in your joy and sympathize in your misfortune. Misses Hilda and Annie Eliason, who are not only thorough housekeepers and good musicians, but can succeed by stock and bond, and on flourishing dry goods establishment as well if not better than some of our bachelor friends, and make money out of it. But time will not permit to mention half of our girls. But if some former old bachelors will give us a call we will be pleased to give him any other information he may desire. LOANSTON.

Provo.
A happy and complete surprise was tendered the I. O. O. F. on Wednesday evening by the daughters of Rebecca. Immediately after the installation of officers by the former lodge at the hall, they were informed by Mrs. D. T. Clark, Jr., J. D. Jones and Mrs. B. Bachman, Jr., that a spread awaited them in the Masonic hall across the corridor. Following this was a scene of merriment as the members of the lodge were escorted to the room and seated about the tables. D. T. Clark was the most surprised and honored of them all, being presented with a jewel for his faithful services as past grand master. The smaller ladies of the evening were whirled away in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dodd were tendered a surprise Wednesday evening by their friends in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding, for which they felt supremely gratified and manifested their gratefulness in giving their guests the benefit of every hospitality. The following stories of fast friends participated in the pleasures of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wedgewood, Mr. and Mrs. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, Mr. Fred Bee, Miss Edith Bee and Etta Bee.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mrs. A. D. Smith on Wednesday evening, the principals in which were Thomas Pierpoint, Jr., and Miss Dottie Smoot, young people well known and of good report in our city.

Miss Dottie, now Mrs. Pierpoint, is one of Provo's fairest daughters, winning and attractive, and the prize of her hundred admirers.

Congratulations to the groom and best wishes for a happy life to Dot.

On Thursday evening a select and popular collection of young people gathered at Marshall's hall and danced to the strains of music. The affair was gotten up on short notice by the following committee: Reed Smoot, Mrs. George Sutherland, Mrs. Dr. Hunt, W. H. King, Mrs. George A. Dusenberry, Brig Smoot, Mrs. Teele Taylor, George A. Dusenberry, Dr. O. W. Huff, Claud Gates, George S. Taylor, floor managers, Reed Smoot, Albert Glazier.

Brigham City.

Hyron Standing and Miss Olga Kaiser of Brigham were married on Friday evening at the home of the groom's parents in Collinston, Bishop Frank Dursley of Beaver Dam officiating. About 100 guests were present, all of whom wish the happy couple a pleasant journey through life.

Charles Tillotson left on a European mission on Saturday night. The many friends of himself and wife gave him a surprise party on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. Oleen Stohl have been visiting in Salt Lake.

Miss Stella Dunford of Salt Lake is spending a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. S. S. Snow.

Miss Emma Stohl, daughter of City Treasurer O. N. Stohl, has been visiting in Salt Lake this week.

Miss Nellie Gillespie, daughter of Rev. S. L. Gillespie, was home from Salt Lake spending New Year's time with her parents.

Richfield.

Last Friday the annual reunion of the George W. Bean family was held at the E. P. Bean hall. It was a grand time and highly enjoyable to all who were present. We are sorry that the lack of space prohibits us from giving a full report of it, but it is impossible. The whole family, except two daughters, one residing at Idaho and the other at Aurora, were present. Including sons-in-law and daughters-in-law and a very few invited friends, there were about eighty persons present.

Abraham Johnson, who married Miss Violet Bean of Richfield, came to the city last week to visit with his wife's relatives and friends and attend the Bean reunion. Misses Mary and Matilda Anderson of Elsinore spent New Years in Richfield.

Springville.
The annual reunion of the Deal and Crandall families were held on Thursday. An elegant dinner was spread, after which Mrs. May Crandall delivered a short address of welcome. A splendid time was had by all present.

The friends and relatives of Cyrus Sanford gave him a surprise party on Friday, the occasion being his seventy-ninth birthday. About forty persons were present.

Mrs. Estings of Montana spent the holiday season with relatives and friends here.

Coalville.

The Misses Edna and Florence Mosher of Salt Lake are spending a week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith.

A banquet was given Mayor Beard at the Coalville house on Friday evening by the members of the council and their wives. When all were seated at the table Councilman Smith, in behalf of the council, presented Mr. Beard with a handsome gold-headed cane, to which his honor responded, thanking each one for the token of esteem, in a most appropriate speech. Short addresses were made by others and an enjoyable time was had. These presents were Mayor George Beard and wife, J. H. Ball and wife, Joseph Barber and wife, E. E. Newell and wife, Mrs. Geo. Gordon, W. H. Smith, T. L. Allen, W. W. Cluff, William Hudson, J. A. Smith, E. H. Head, Charles Callis, A. Buchanan, Dr. Hughes and B. Wilkins.

FIRE BY THE MAYOR.

His Honor Squares the Claims of Hardy and Butler.

When the joint city and county building committee met a few days ago, Mayor Baskin had the meeting adjourned until yesterday in order to give him an opportunity to look into the claims of Messrs. Hardy and Butler on one side and Bannerman and Morris on the other and determine who should be recognized as the section representing the county on the committee.

Both the old and new sectionmen were present when the committee met yesterday afternoon, and before proceeding to business, the mayor announced his decision in the premises and it was brief and to the point. He had looked into the matter thoroughly and had satisfied himself that Messrs. Bannerman and Morris were the sectionmen, both de jure and de facto. He did not see how any other conclusion could be reached under a reasonable construction of the law, and would therefore recognize the gentlemen named. The acts of the committee thus constituted would be legal, and the business would be conducted accordingly.

Messrs. Hardy and Butler promptly retired and the fire proofing question was taken up. Contractor Bowman gave some information regarding the various plans, and after some discussion the meeting adjourned until Monday.

Clearing House Exchanges.

Yesterday's clearing house exchanges were $314,065; same day last year, $298,463; increase, $15,602.

A Lost Tunicator.

Another Tunicator leaves a valiant warrior in Schuch Powers' diminishing band, has apparently been lost in the forest. Police Clerk Glenn, hero of many a big talk, left the city very unconcernedly last Sunday, sending back word that he was off for Denver and would return Thursday. He has not been seen since. He had been drinking heavily for some time, and his accounts are in a very tangled condition, but it is not known that there is any charge, as no examination has been made. The city auditor says he will proceed to investigate at once.

The Vance Trial.

The court martial trial of Lieutenant Vance, charged with entering the house of Lieutenant Johnson and attempting an assault upon Mrs. Johnson, was proceeded with at Fort Douglas yesterday. The case was heard by Judge W. H. Smith at 3 o'clock each day, but three witnesses were examined. It is expected that the prosecution will rest tonight, and the defense will commence Monday. The trial will probably last until Wednesday or Thursday of next week.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 6.—The Wall Street stock market today was very firm, aside from a few stocks which have of late monopolized the attention of traders. The gold exports today acted as a stimulant to the market, but did not induce any selling of importance. Buying, however, was of a hand to mouth order throughout the day, being confined to covering operations. Index trials were still active and held strongly. Heading showed a marked falling off from recent activity due to the announcement that the company was to lose 22,000 tons of business daily which checked any attempt to build the stock and the quotations were unusually small. Grainers were rather neglected. The strong feature was Northern Pacific preferred, the ex-dividend advance was only 1/4 per cent. Manhattan fluctuated widely, finally closing with the advance. The stock exchange gave notice that Colorado Coal stock would be taken from the list on the 14th, and the stock was hampered to some extent, being a kind of price. A sympathetic decline in Colorado fuel immediately followed and the market on the whole was quiet, but in the case of gold, silver, iron through out, closing firm at best prices as a rule, though Louisiana showed an exception, closing lower upon a fractional decline. Government bonds steady.
Petroleum not quoted.
